Billy has tried many times unsuccessfully to lose weight. He stills wants to lose weight but he is tired of dieting

One day Billy finds Deciduo, and he thinks that it could help him lose weight while retaining a happy lifestyle

Billy is shocked to see that he can rate how happy foods make him. He never did this before!

Billy is also excited to learn that the program better understands what makes him happy the more he uses it!

Billy can also track his progress and see how is doing over time. He sees that he has cut back a lot last week, so he can eat more this week!

It took three years for Billy to get here, but he can finally be proud that he lost weight without making himself unhappy
